1. Prior to 17 February 1952, the former officer candidate school in Koeszeg (P 48/X 60) was occupied by Soviet troops. From 20 to 25 trucks and an undetermined number of artillery pieces of an unknown type were parked in the yard of the school. Another undetermined number of Soviet soldiers was quartered in the guarded former officers' recreation home where 30 to 40 trucks were parked in the yard. (1)
2. Prior to December 1951, the Castle Barracks in Koeszeg was occupied by Hungarian border guard troops. In January and February 1952, this installation was occupied by civilians. (2)
